OF DRAWING, PAINTING & SCULPTURE

FALL 2021

SATURDAY MORNING PAINTING – IN-PERSON

Instructor: Catherine Lepp
Class Hours: 9am-1pm, Saturdays
First Class: Saturday, September 25, 2021
Last Class: Saturday, December 11, 2021
No Class: November 27 – Thanksgiving Break

Course Description

A painterly exploration of color, drawing, composition and process. The class will focus on painting from the figure each week. Students will gain an understanding of how to translate an actual experience into paint. We will explore the grid, the color palette, scale, shape and mark making in relationship to what we are seeing and experiencing.

Course Outline

Week 1 & 2: Painting from the figure: 2 week study on medium size canvas of your choice.

Geometry/shape/scale/negative space/positive space

Week 3 & 4: Painting from the figure: 2 week study on medium/large size canvas. Composition and framing, language and structure of color

Week 5: The Metropolitan Museum of Art (may be virtual, if necessary). Sketchbook & paper pencils for transcription of a painting

Week 6 & 7: The Head. 2 week painting of the models head. 24x24 square canvas

Week 8 & 9: 2 figure: 2 week study on medium size canvas of a single figure in 2 positions. Pattern, repetition, symmetry, asymmetry, line variation and movement

Week 10 & 11: 2 week painting from the figure. Final Critique

Learning Outcomes

Through participating in the class, students will:

- Utilize materials, tools and techniques used in learning the basics of painting;
- Employ principles of geometry, line, shape, pattern, negative space, rhythm and balance as the foundation of every work of art;
- Apply basic color theory, harmony and opposition, along with color's ability to effect meaning, feeling and interpretation of a work of art;
- Analyze own and fellow students' work through critiques.

Evaluation and Grading for MFA students

Grading, for NYSS MFA students, is on a High Pass/Pass/Low Performance/Fail basis. To achieve a Pass grade, students will be evaluated on commitment to the class; participation in class process and discussions; fulfillment of assignments to a satisfactory level; completion of 5 of pieces. Your MFA grade will be based on your attendance (1/3) your oral presentations and participation in group discussions (1/3) the quality of your projects and evidence of development in processes, knowledge and sensibility (1/3).

ATTENDANCE/LATENESS -Attendance and punctuality are of the utmost importance in a studio class where the work is difficult to make up. 3 absences will be a fail. 4 full class absences is grounds for dismissal from the class. Attendance is normally taken 15 minutes after the hour. If you are not present at roll call, you are considered late. 3 LATES = 1 ABSENCE
