E. Tuition Remission

The New York Studio School is pleased to offer financial aid in the form of Tuition Remission to eligible, dedicated students. Tuition Remission is not employment, nor is it “work-study”; in return for helping around the School and/or virtually in various agreed upon capacities, your owed-tuition will be lowered. Your award is based upon the aggregate ways in which you agree to assist and financial need; it is not prorated based on single roles or hours dedicated to the various tasks. Tuition Remission roles are assigned during Registration and a separate survey will be sent out at that time to determine student preference. Tuition Remission is optional and participation will not impact other aid awarded.
